April 5, 2010

Dear Housing Provider:

Montgomery County cordially invites you to the "One Stop Fair Housing Shop" scheduled for Friday, April 30, 2010, 11:30 PM – 4:00 PM. FREE lunch will be available, along with County Exhibitors with informational displays. An added bonus of "Continuing Education Units-Certificate of Training-(CEU's)" will also be awarded. Please note – late arrivals will not receive credit!

This event is designed to educate professionals, citizens, advocates and property managers in the housing industry about fair housing laws and compliance. Our educational forum is a free event located at the University of Maryland, Shady Grove Campus. The forum is planned to provide you with the information you will need to comply with all of the Montgomery County fair housing laws. Representatives from four Montgomery County regulatory agencies and the Maryland Commission on Human Relations will be available to distribute information, make presentations, and answer all of your fair housing related questions.

The attached announcement provides details for the event and instructions for registration. Please post this flyer and share this announcement with those who are interested in fair housing for Montgomery County.

We hope to see you there. Please RSVP by April 26, 2010.
